

Reaching Rahab: Joining God in His Quest for Friends (Paperback)

By Barney Wiget

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Barney Wiget suggests that our efforts to influence people toward Jesus should be as natural as inviting them into a cool river on a sweltering summer day. His is a grace-filled, friendship-making approach to gospeling that distills down to the friends of God joining him on his quest for more friends. Ours is the matchmaker's mantra: I've got a Friend I'd like you to meet. He concedes that the story of Rahab's rescue in the book of Joshua is not exactly your stock story from which to draw inspiration for sharing faith with not-yet-believers. He points out that the well-known miracle of crumbling walls and the conquest of Jericho, though remarkable, is only part of the story. The greater story is that of a pagan prostitute and her family's rescue, redemption, and eventual inclusion in Jesus' family line. Rahabs, he says, are broken women and men in our own spheres of influence who may or may not make their living from other people's brokenness, and yet they have something inside that points them in the general...
