Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Walter Walt Whitman (May 31, 1819 - March 26, 1892) was an American poet, essayist, and journalist. A humanist, he was a part of the transition between transcendentalism and realism, incorporating both views in his works. The Maker of Moons is an 1896 short story collection by Robert W. Chambers which followed the publication of Chambers most famous work, The King in Yellow (1895). It contained eight new stories, including the title story The Maker of Moons, one of his weird tales, and several romantic Art Nouveau stories, concluding with two less distinguished weird tales. The latter were subsequently incorporated into the episodic novel In Search of the Unknown. The first three stories are linked by the theme of a dream wife who is named Ysonde, and they form a triptych. The weird nature of the first story has interesting echoes in the other two, which feature picturesque animal figures, such as a Red Ibis and a disagreeable porcupine. The story In The Name of the Most High is a war story set in the American Civil War. The next...
