

Topsy Turvy My life in the year 2013, A novel

By Anne Wilensky

Haiku Helen Press. Paperback. Condition: New. Billy Stampone (illustrator). 314 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Like all Anne Wilenskys novels, Topsy Turvy, is based on her own real life experience. Anne wakes up Christmas morning 2012 to her email not working, then her phone broke, her TV went to heaven, and then her computer blew up. As soon as she gets all her electronics squared away an unbelievable fatigue sweeps over her as she sits at the computer. She staggers to the tool room cot next to her computer room. And instantly plummets to the bottom of her mind. For 6 weeks she does not eat or sleep. It is all disturbing memories from her past. And when she does doze off for a moment, it doesn't refresh her or relax her. The dreams are just as intense as her waking thoughts, and like a comment on them. She isn't scared or upset because she is with her Higher Self all thru it. But she doesn't know what is happening. Yet it all feels so purposeful, she knows it has to be. When Spring arrives, both the earth and Anne rise up at the same time. And it is...
