By Sulagna Mukhopadhyay

GRIN Verlag GmbH Okt 2013, 2013. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 211x146x5 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Project Report from the year 2011 in the subject South Asian Studies, South-Eastern Asian Studies, grade: For adults, , language: English, comment: It was a survey done to see how the world is heading toward eradication of illiteracy. I did the survey in India and concentrated on West Bengal, a state on the eastern part of India. I selected schools with different board exams as well as different medium of instructions. , abstract: Basic education is the bedrock to do away with poverty and all other social miseries existing in the modern world. India, a multi-lingual, multi-cultural and multi-religious country, is divided into 28 states and 7 union territories with a population of 1.15 billion (according to Census Report, 2010). Though a developing country, the country's economic power is growing steadily providing jobs for the citizens and India claims an international acknowledgement as knowledge superpower . But poignant as it could be, India has the largest illiterate population in the world. I interviewed various school teachers and Heads of institutions to find out what is...

Reviews

The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
