Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .fund of $150,000,000, there was an available cash balance of $149,701,585.48 in the United States treasury. The decrease in the balance during the month was $19,799,831.86. Something like 6,000 miles of American and Canadian railways are now being operated by telephone and the substitution of the telephone for the telegraph in railway service is being rapidly extended. An imperial edict provides for a uniform silver coinage for the whole of the Chinese Empire, while efforts are also now being made to secure uniformity in weights and measures. Banana imports into the United States during the past fiscal year were 37.072.985 bunches, valued at foreign ports of export at $11,390,744. Over 3,000,000 gallons of ice cream were consumed in Chicago last year. An important discovery of asbestos has been made near Eastman, Quebec. Wireless communication was had February 17 with the Hawaiian Islands. A rubber-tanned leather is reported being manufactured in London. IN BUSINESS AID Every sentence counts. It is designed for careful reading. Most of its contents will richly repay re-reading, or study. The magazine should also be preserved for future reference. Much of the news is obtained from the advance summaries and other current reports of the government. The important new points in business law are prepared in the office of BUSINESS AID, especially for it, from advance-sheet reports covering the decisions of the higher courts of all the states and United States. Then everything is boiled down to save the busy business man s...
