Shearsman Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 78 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Beast enters incisively, like claws. It arrives with gleaming fur and stinking. Its a creature that spills its guts and impels the same from others-peoples, animals, limbs, foodstuffs, logical thinking, familial and sexual relations. In Irene Solas scenes, theres nothing that isnt jammed together and insecure but whats constant is temperament. Beast comes swiftly, with a brazen laugh and cocked ears. Watch out when the lines pause for weird and possibly lethal detours. As Sola jolts, pulses and pushes off, she might leave the paths littered with bouquets or corpses. -Heather Phillipson Sensuous, precise, and profoundly generous in their glimpses of strikingly private narratives, Solas poems feel perfectly placed for the strange heat of our times. . . -Ben Rivers After drinking orange blossom water until she vomited everything that she had inside her, the writer and artist Leonora Carrington wrote that her stomach was the mirror of the earth. Solas Beast has a duckling in the belly; the words it makes her sick up are evil, brittle, full of feeling. Im excited to see this translation from the Catalan unleashed on UK poetry. -Sophie Collins This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
