

It Always Rains on Sundays

By Roger Johnson

Troubador Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, It Always Rains on Sundays, Roger Johnson, Life is happy for 40-year-old poetry buff and senior librarian Colin Quirke, happily married to Cynthia for thirteen years with two great kids. Not so for Cynthia. Cyn is bored. This all changes when a new, younger couple moves in next door. Eddie and ditsy blonde Avril's motto is 'Life is for living!'. Wild parties with loud music are soon followed by girls' nights out, and life will never be the same on the De Lacey Street cul-de-sac. In the meantime, Eddie is killed in a tragic micro-light plane accident. Cyn consoles Avril by taking her to Miami. Next thing you know, she's met up with some red-haired American guy called Kevin Ranker (aka 'the home-wrecker'). Is divorce on the cards for Cyn and Colin? Consolations, at least. Still, there's always the lovely Alison at the Poetry Society. Or the new assistant librarian at work, she could be interesting. It Always Rains on Sundays is a laugh-out-loud new novel from BBC prize-winner Roger Johnson. Full of intelligent humour, it is an entertaining read for fans of funny and original fiction.
