THE FORBIDDEN LAND: EDEN AND BEYOND (HARDBACK)

James Alan Carner, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A story about the first man, and how he woke up wondering who he was, where he was and what everything was about. His only living companions, at the time of his new found consciousness, were animals. The story tells how he reached out to them to try and find his identity. All the while, they were also seeking their own identities. Years later, Adam related his story and achievements to his children and great grandchildren. And they passed the story on. It speaks of Adam and Eve, how they were created and how they lived. They first had to adjust to their surrounding in the Garden of Eden and later had to adjust to the absurdities outside of the garden. They learned to adjust to life and they also had to adapt to death as well. They lost their first son, Abel who was killed by his older brother, Cain. Afterwards Cain left and they had to deal with the loss of both of their sons. The Forbidden Land is narrated by Methuselah as told to his grandson, the eighteen year old, Noah. And is being witnessed by Methuselah s living ancestors, Enosh, Cainan, Jared, Mahalalel and Methuselah s son, Lamech.
