FIRE AND WINE - AN ARMCHAIR GUIDE TO STEVE ASHLEY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Originally published in 2013, but fully updated to include 2017's Another Day CD, this is the first complete musical biography of one of the UK's most respected and talented singer-songwriters. Fire and Wine is the story of Steve Ashley, the artist Mojo magazine described as the Inspector Morse of the folk world - a gentle romantic with a flair for mystery ; and whose debut album Stroll On holds a permanent place among the greatest folk-rock records ever made. Steve's own recollections are joined by a small army of friends and colleagues, including Dave Pegg, Shirley Collins, Linda Thompson, Chris Leslie, Colin Irwin, Bruce Rowland, Maartin Allcock, Austin John Marshall and many others. Packed with rare photographs, Fire and Wine is an indispensable addition to the folk and traditional library. Thompson outlines in painful detail how this pilgrim of Englishness (but a man as far from UKIP as one could possibly imagine) keeps going despite everything that fate throws at him. Steve Ashley is a worthy recipient of this Armchair Guide. - Caught in The Act; This is not a guide that encourages passive reading:...
