

From Monks to Missionaries: Schools of Spirituality in the Christian Tradition (Paperback)

By Nicki Verploegen

CASCADE BOOKS, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Description: Have you ever wondered what the difference between the Franciscans and Jesuits is? Have you been curious about how a monk's life differs from a missionary's and about the origins of these traditions? This book explores how four distinct types of spirituality evolved in Christianity over the centuries as a response to various needs in different eras. These all became schools of spiritual formation. This book introduces monasticism, mendicancy, apostolic ministry, and missionary life as umbrella categories out of which many religious communities formed. It explores thirteen of these different communities, introducing you to the founders and the original fire that moved each of them to create something new. This book provides historical background and explores the rich legacy of the founders of each of these communities. It vibrantly shows how the story of the church as a whole has been enriched and blessed by these feisty, controversial, and saintly sages whose radical choice to follow the Spirit led them into new terrain and resulted in the emergence of a diversity of forms of spiritual lifestyles. From within this...

Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. It's been written in a remarkably easy way in fact it is only after I finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affected the way I think.
