Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 194 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.4in. Is God pleased with the life you are living? Are you fulfilling your purpose on earth? Have you become what God created you to be? There are only a few people in the world that can answer yes to all three questions. However, there are many folks that can answer yes to obtaining success today, but several of these people will be very disappointed in the future. As you read The Successful Life, you will learn how to obtain success and avoid going to hell. You will also learn how to live as a Christian without being cast into the outer darkness. During these last days on earth, Satan has blinded the people's minds with sex, money, and drugs. Satan knows his time is short, so his objective is to get people to focus on earthly things. Satan understands that if he can blind people from finding salvation in Jesus Christ, hell will continue to grow beyond measure. For this reason, The Successful Life was written. In this easy-to-read book, you will discover the difference between good success and bad success. You will discover what the successful life is and is not. You will also discover several secrets that will help you live your life to the fullest and bring gratification to God. William Chill Will Hildreth was born and raised in Baytown, Texas. He is a husband and father of four children. He came to know God in 1996. He is a member of New Light Church, where Bishop I. V. Hilliard is the senior pastor. William is committed to using his gifts and talents to save souls, and edify the Body of Christ. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from...
