Excerpt: .he had a few words to say to the jury in behalf of his client. The speech made by the State s attorney was flat and stale, for he was not interested in the case; but Lawyer Terrell s appeal to the jury is still remembered in Rockville. It was not only powerful, but inimitable; it was humorous, pathetic, and eloquent. When he concluded, the jury, which was composed mostly of middle-aged men, was in tears. The feelings of the spectators were also wrought up to a very high pitch, and when the jury found a verdict of not guilty, without retiring, the people in the court-room made the old house ring again. with applause. And then something else occurred. Pressing forward through the crowd came Colonel Benjamin Flewellen. His clothes were a trifle shabby, but he had the air of a prince of...
