Henry Press, United States, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Set in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1974, this cozy mystery effectively recreates the era through the details of down-to-earth Ellison's everyday life. - Booklist Mulhern's lively, witty sequel to The Deep End finds Kansas City, Mo., socialite Ellison Russell reluctantly attending a high school football game. There she stumbles on a dying teenage boy covered in blood, who asks that she tell his girlfriend that he loves her. Ellison determines to learn the girlfriend's identity and deliver the message, plus find the boy's killer. If that's not enough for one day, an unknown man turns up shot to death in her garden. Cozy fans will eagerly await Ellison's further adventures. - Publishers Weekly In this excellent follow-up to her debut The Deep End, author Mulhern continues to depict the trappings of a privileged community. Readers who enjoy the novels of Susan Isaacs will love this series that blends a strong mystery with the demands of living in an exclusive society. Watching Ellison develop the strength of character to break through both her own and her society's expectations is a sheer delight. - Kings River Life Magazine As close to a perfect summer read as mystery fans are likely to find, a well-written, entertaining mystery filled with humor and complicated family relationships. Thoroughly enjoyable. - Librarian, Jefferson-Madison Regional Library System With his dying breath, Bobby Lowell begs Ellison Russell, Tell her...
