Out of the snow and the mist, In rain-wet, wind-blown gauze Of amber and amethyst Cometh Spring like a girl. Trembling and timorous She peers through the thin white thaws, Afraid of the winds that whirl Down paths all perilous Where her so tender feet are softly going, Where tho rich earth awaiteth her lavish sowing Of green and purple and white In the gardens of day and night. Hither she cometh - Behold her, the wraith so frail! The chill gray storm benumbeth Her delicate fingers pale, And looseth her hair from its fillet of pearl.
