CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 430 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Am I doing this George beseeched the unknown mechanism, out loud, wondering if some amazing probabilistic coincidence was in effect instead. The year is 1997. In his garage in the sleepy suburbs of Cambridge, Massachusetts, George Carter has just inadvertently created a telepathic receiver while trying to conduct an experiment on X-ray bands. Unfortunately, he has no idea how he did it. But while he is working on perfecting the new device, others become aware of Georges experiments. It is only a matter of time before disaster strikes. Meanwhile, in an unknown location somewhere in the distant universe, an alien race called the Sphyrans has just stumbled upon a remarkable scientific breakthrough. They have perfected a new psychomagnetic technology that allows them to communicate quickly and efficiently across their planet. At first, when strange gibberish starts showing up on the screens they discard it as random phenomena. But as the images start invading more and more channels, they begin to pay more attention. The Sphyrans slowly begin to realize that they have somehow created a bridge across the universe, establishing...
