Your next item is salary decreased? A. I have the items for that, if you wish it. Q. Well, go on, and I will ask you for the items later. A-Salaries, $1,574. Mr. Brooks. We will put in such details as we have. The Chairman. These deductions made by the witness, perhaps, are, you might say, mathematical calculations prepared for the expert. Mr. Humphreys won t have to travel over this same ground, if he takes the same view that this witness apparently has. It is only another way of furnishing information, and is not to be confirmed until Mr. Humphreys takes the stand. Mr. Green. In order to avoid any possible wrong to us in the future, I would like to save any question on it. The Chairman. Of course this witness does not pretend to be able to pass upon these tilings. He is simply preparing a lot of figures for another man. Now the other man can take them and say, I furnished these figures for Mr. Humphreys, and let Mr. Humphreys go on the stand. - Mr. Green. Of course there is another aspect of that. Of course this is another form of the way in which they are to approach the same question, I take it. I infer, from what is...
