Michael Glazier Inc, United States, 1994. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Thirty years ago, a group of Catholic scholars responded to the radical challenges of Paul Tillich s theology in a collection of essays that was courageous and farsighted for its time. This present collection of contemporary articles, a successor to the 1964 volume, reflects the very different religious and cultural situation that characterizes post-Vatican II theology and demonstrates the wide spectrum of positive and creative ways in which the thought of Paul Tillich - one of this century s most important Protestant theologians - continues to influence Catholic theological reflection today. Noted Catholic theologians from Africa, Canada, Europe, India, and the United States engage Tillich s theology in a cross section of contemporary issues such as feminism, liberation theology, sacraments, and spirituality. Their efforts are complemented by a Protestant response from Langdon Gilkey, one of the world s foremost authorities on Tillich. This volume reveals the enduring power of Tillich s thought to give shape to current Catholic theology and suggests valuable new ecumenical avenues of research for all theologians and other scholars who wish to study and use Paul Tillich s theological legacy.
