Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Love and Remorse A beautiful home, with elegant and extensive grounds: with all the surroundings denoting wealth and luxury. Three beautiful children, two girls and a boy, playing on the lawn; whose very countenances beam with happiness and delight, as their busy little hands twine into garlands for their mamma, the daisies and forget-me-nots their little brother has showered in their laps, and around them, laughing the while, with innocent glee at the pleasure and surprise that awaits mamma, when she shall see the work of their little dimpled fingers. Even Rover, the large Newfoundland, looks on with satisfaction, as he follows his little master hither and thither over the grounds. Affections Eye is ever watchful. Mama comes out on the lawn, looking for her children, and to enter into their childish sports. The little ones, forgetful of everything else, clap their hands with delight, and shout aloud, when they see mamma, the center of all their joys, coining toward them - for they have finished their work and are ready with loving hands to...
