ZONDERVAN, United States, 1999. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Reissue. 183 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. No story has more significance than this: the death and resurrection of Jesus. But somehow the oft-repeated tale of Christ's passion can become too familiar, too formalized, for us to experience its incredible immediacy. The meditations in Reliving the Passion, which received a Gold Medallion Award in 1993, follow the story as given in the gospel of Mark from the moment when the chief priests plot to kill Jesus to the Resurrection. But these readings are more than a recounting of events; they are an imaginary reenactment, leading the reader to re-experience the Passion or perhaps see it fully for the very first time. The story gets personal for every reader, writes Wangerin, for this is indeed our story, the story whereby we personally have been saved from such a death as Jesus died. No, there is not another tale in the world more meaningful than this here is where we all take our stands against sin and death and Satan, upon this historical, historic event. I consider it a holy privilege to participate in its retelling. Read this book slowly. Read it with a seeing faith. Walk the way with Jesus. We, his followers of later...
