

Daddy: A Simple Guide to Coping with the Loss of Family, Finding Peace and Setting Priorities as a Newly Single Father

By Thomas DiPaolo

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 62 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. The transition from a family life to being a single parent can be devastating for a man. The challenges seem insurmountable and the pain, endless. As a man, you constantly question, why or how did this happen. Certainly it was not planned and in many cases you fought long and hard for your family only to find yourself exactly where you had hoped and prayed you would never be. Coming to terms with the loss and separation with your spouse can be crippling in itself but with the inclusion of your children, the anguish can become unbearable. For some men this may mean serving as the primary parental figure. For others this may mean a shared parenting arrangement. Regardless of the level of parental control, when the dust clears one thing will always be very certain. You will never again have your family and you will forever be changed. This can at times take years to cope with and adjust to. At times a man may never truly recover. The change can take its toll emotionally making dating and meeting...
