It was said, those who studied as Vesudeva's apprentice reached their heart's desire. Master too many masters, Vesudeva agrees to be interviewed by a local reporter about the ancient teaching and his life's work. Ferryman to both rich and poor; transporting travelers across the river, and helping others embrace a timeless, spiritual Reality. During their interview, the ancient ferryman introduces the reporter to spiritual learning; transporting him to a world within a world. A Reality that is always changing, yet, Singular and transcendent; built upon preconceptions and conditioned thoughts. Shattering them one after another, in the Light of Truth. Join us. Let Vesudeva guide you. Offering this ancient, spiritual teaching, in an updated form; your journey across the timeless river is presented in layers. Wherein each layer, like a day's events, can be viewed separately or combined to form a larger work. What Reader's Had to Say The Ferryman's Dream is an exciting, creative, imaginative and informative journey into the heart of consciousness. It is a wonderful story that will open your heart and mind....
