Dear Taxpayer, As the year 2010 ends, millions of Americans are still struggling to find work. Even those lucky enough to have jobs have had to tighten their belts and trim household budgets. For some this has meant cutting out luxuries; for others, having to make tough choices between necessities. For everyone it means taking stock of what they can really afford. Is it so much to expect Congress do the same The need to cut back federal spending is obvious: there simply is not enough money to pay for everything the government is doing. Excessive borrowing and spending has driven the national debt to a staggering 13.8 trillion. Last year alone, the government spent well over 1 trillion more than it collected in taxes. Every one of those borrowed dollars will need to be paid back with interest, and unless we can rein in spending, it will also mean higher taxes. Americans eager to avoid this are asking the government to do more with less, just as they have been doing. The federal budget, however, remains...
