Excerpt from Scripture Proofs and Scriptural Illustrations of Unitarianism: With an Examination of the Alleged Biblical Evidence for the Doctrine of a Triune God, the Proper Diety of Christ, and the Divine Personality of the Holy Spirit, Distinct From the Father The following Work was originally written in very small bounds, and adapted chie?y for the instruction and convenience of the Writer; being designed to exhibit an illustrative view of the real or supposed Scripture evidence for the leading doctrines of Unitarianism and Trinitarianism. In pursuance of this scheme, be divided the left-hand page of his little paper-book into two columns: the first of which was intended to contain the passages of Scripture usually adduced in support of the doctrine of the Trinity and the Deity of Christ; and the second to include those texts which either establish the strict Unity of God the absolute Supremacy of the Father, or which, on Unitarian principles, illustrate the texts supposed to countenance Trinitarianism. All these portions of the Bible were merely referred to; and the corresponding or right-hand page was reserved for a few very brief observations. By the suggestion of a respected friend, who thought that a work pub lished in that form would be serviceable to the cause of Christian truth, the Author undertook to extend his plan; and accordingly, instead of merely noting the texts, and making some unimportant remarks, he has quoted the principal passages, enlarged his observations, and extracted from the writings of various eminent men those explanations and critical remarks which be conceived to be the most appropriate or valuable, accompanied with various readings and different translations of disputed passages of Scripture; besides further extending his original plan, by...
