

The Guardians of the Fallen Kingdom: Serbia s Great Drama in J.R.R. Tolkien s the Lord of the Rings (Paperback)

By Bojan Medic

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Thus, in words composed by a host of nameless bards, the songs of Serbia carry on the nation s story, and every Serb feels himself an actor in a great drama that is being played out across the centuries. He continues the work of his forefathers. He avenges their sufferings. But he also works for the future. He builds the framework of an age to come. He is a living link in one great chain that stretches backward far into the past and reaches forward to the generations who shall see Serbia great and free. It is more than obvious that Sam Gamgee was thinking in much the same way, in the moment he realized that he and Frodo were in the same story as the heroes of old stories and songs. He then said: Why, to think of it, we re in the same tale still! It s going on. - Then he asked: - Don t the great tales never end? Frodo answered on his question: No, they never end as tales. But the people in them come...
