

The Hoosier Schoolmaster - A Story of Backwoods Life in Indiana (Illustrated) (Paperback)

By Deceased Edward Eggleston

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Illustrated. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The old days of rural Indiana are recalled in this story of Ralph, a schoolteacher who must deal with many trials of life in what was then a frontier society. This edition includes the original twenty-nine illustrations. Set in a rural village in Indiana during the mid-19th century, this story introduces to the reader small town life in the United States. The dialogue reflects the slang of the region, and the hardships of the teacher s life - from managing unruly children to acquiring materials for his school and the respect of the community - are all too clear. There are frequent references to Christianity, and the rural culture and traditions that hold prevalence. Yet Ralph is a young, talented and keen teacher who is determined to prove himself equal to the task of tutoring the small town s children. Through his difficult quest, Ralph acquires both friends and enemies, and realizes the uphill task ahead of him. Eventually he faces the greatest challenge of his life, when a false accusation leads him to defend himself in court - although things...
