

Station of the Cross (Paperback)

By Robert Guffey

Lulu.com, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Written in a hopeful, honest, thoughtful, yet sometimes humorous, tone, Station of the Cross is a collection of sixty reflections on faith and life by an author who is an experienced pastor, writer, husband, father and friend. FROM THE INTRODUCTION Is there a God? Can we know God? Is God worth knowing? What kind of God is this, really, who Christians claim is a personal God and one who cares for the person, the person in society and community? So what? When I think about those questions, I find that it is not the answers to those questions but the unexpected glimpses of transcendence in the temporal that keep me going. It s the occasional breaking through of the numinous--of the character and presence of the divine--that points me again toward that which is pure, best and luminous in life.! [and] enough light to keep walking another step along the way.
