I had known F through years of hunting and sports in India, but never until the night that our old British-India coaster lay off the Shat-el-Arab bar waiting for the turn of the tide to run up to Bassorah, did I hear him speak of the things that were really next his heart. Then it was that I was vouchsafed transient vision of the outer strands of the previsionsary web England was weaving beyond the marches of India against events to come. I will give his story, as nearly as I can remember, in his own words. For the best part of the last five years said he, I have been coming to Arabia and Mesopotamia on language study. In all of that time I have not been back to England, and I am almost a stranger to the officers of my own regiment. I talk like an Arab, I am beginning to think like an Arab, and, what with sunlight and dirt that have gone so deep under my epidermis that they will never come out, I shall soon look like an Arab. Perhaps in time you never believe the appeal of the Koran till you've bowed toward Mecca, with a Bedouin on either side of you, morning and evening, for six months at a stretch I shall pray like an Arab. I have had smallpox, dysentery, which has become practically chronic, and a dozen varieties of fevers and skin diseases, and I'm mottled from head to foot with Aleppo button scars, two of which have never healed. I've been alone so much that I talk to myself even in Calcutta and Simla. The Persians in this region distrust me, the...
