

Poems by Elvira

By Elvira Montanye

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Poems by Elvira are rich with joy and laughter as well as sorrow and pain that she has felt and experienced throughout her life as friends and family came to visit her. The faith and love for her Lord and Savior are revealed as she sits in a coffee shop or on her front porch and watches people as they pass by and then writes about them as only one who is inspired by the love of God can write. Friends and Flowers says, Sometimes friendships like flowers grow, This is a poem that looks back at friends who have come and gone as flowers do in their seasons. Some come to stay. Moms was inspired as a young mother passed by her front porch one day and stopped momentarily to show affection to her young son. I m supposed to love you is about her elderly mother who had lost most of her memory in her later years. As she looked at Elvira s older sister, who was angry with her mother, her mother said, I...
