An invisible red thread connects those who are destined to meet, regardless of time, place or circumstances. The thread may stretch or tangle, but will never break. - early Chinese belief This art book of beautiful images by celebrated artist Soizick Meister is the second book about Mr. M, a mysterious and imaginative dreamer. Arcane, evocative words and rich language are used to tell this new tale of Mr. M who has recently been liberated from heavy memories and uncertainties, (struggles he overcame in Mr. M and the Exploring Dreamer). But now he realizes he is still missing something: companionship. Mr. M, remembering someone who he loved long ago and lingers still in his mind, he sends her messages. Using the early Chinese idiom of the red thread - the connection linking humanity to one another, as inspiration, Mr. M's messages take the form of mystical red threads. However, messages never take the place of meeting face-to-face, and ultimately, Mr. M must embark to reconnect with her in person. Mr. M and the Red Thread will resonate with all those whose hearts have searched and struggled to find true love. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.
