If you re an athlete and want to play soccer at the college level, then you can t wait for coaches to come knocking at your door, or expect to be discovered. According to the NCAA, only around 2 of athletes are actively recruited. College coaches want to hear from good players who are genuinely interested in their program. The most successful athletes are the ones who are pro-active and start marketing themselves early in high school to college coaches. Written by a soccer parent whose two daughters were successfully recruited to play D1 college soccer, this step-by-step guide provides a comprehensive game plan for players to get a college coach s attention. It also provides valuable information on all D1, D2, D3, NAIA, and NJCAA schools. With over 220 topics and questions covered in-depth; and over 1400 schools listed, this guide explains what a athlete needs to do to be successfully recruited, starting Freshman...
