Outskirts Press. Hardcover. Condition: New. 268 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. In Business Management issues, the core of success for any institution lies on two highly sensitive departments, The Board of Trustees and The Human Resource Department. While the board creates means and sound minded managers and supervisors, the Human Resource Department is privileged to have the power to select among the best the most wanted and creative artists of business to keep the company alive. If the HR errs in such issues, the business bankrupts easily without earning a single profit. Choosing a board of trustees for the company is one good phase of the running of the institution but getting the right employees is by making the company viable and sustainable. The Human Resource Department is responsible to employ, bring into force the laws of a company and terminate unwanted and unreasonable employees. This department should be aware of lawsuits and other actions that might be detrimental to the running of the company. In this book there are helpful hints and checklists that might be helpful to coil the unwanted scenarios. I wish you well in your readings and implementation of these very brilliant ideas of Business Management. With a Doctorate Degree in Business Administration, Lamin Tombekai Kamara, in his first book, discussed many brilliant ideas on how a business is run, including those beginning with and those running businesses that are about to go bankrupt and the politics in business offices. In this book, right after receiving his doctorate degree, he specifically wrote down his experiences he fortunes during his internship, asking questions and researching over and over again during the most difficult days of his studies to succeed in building up ideas in business entrepreneurship. This book is about what he called Advance Business Diplomacy....
