Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Hinduism and Its Relations to Christianity Amid all this, Christianity, especially the Protestant Church, has been making steady progress. The increase of the whole Christian community during the last twenty years has been 50 per cent., while the increase of the Protestant portion has been about 150 per cent, a result which bears witness to the vigour with which Protestant missions have been prosecuted. At the same time, it must be noted that the greater part of this increase was during the first decade, the progress during the second being both relatively and absolutely smaller. This may be partly owing to the more active attitude of Hinduism, but it is also to be feared that some methods of evangelisation have been introduced the results of which are not so permanent as some of the older methods. The situation is one requiring the earnest consideration of those who are leading the missionary enterprise in India. The emergence of these questions has led to the last three chapters of the book being entirely rewritten.
