It will cover private security officers, police officers, police detectives, deputy sheriff s, correction s officers, Secret Service agents and FBI personnel. What normally would take many years to learn, is presented now. You will also learn all the reasons why police officers, and other law enforcement agencies have gotten into serious trouble by using excessive force, as well as the improper use of deadly force. This book will reveal the real true reasons and causes why they use excessive force when making any arrests, and the improper use of deadly force. The information also includes the most vital aspect of all law enforcement personnel. Officer Street Survival. The information covered applies to every person who is thinking about joining any police department. It will also reveal important information that all seasoned police officers don t know, and need to know. You will not find any other book out there that will cover the kind and type of information presented in this book. Many topics revealed will not be talked about or written about in any other book on law enforcement. The knowledge in this book will help you to survive and stay alive in law enforcement, no matter where you work. Its the kind of book that everyone in law enforcement needs to own their own copy, not only to read, but to study.
