Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Cavalier in America The twin sponsors of American colonization were two cavaliers during the days of Queen Elizabeth - Sir Humphrey Gilbert and his half brother, Sir Walter Raleigh. They conceived the idea, that to destroy the superiority of Spain, England must plant a colony in the New World. Accordingly the former obtained a patent of colonization in 1584, and attempted to establish a settlement in the neighborhood of Newfoundland. The attempt proved futile, and in the effort the noble Gilbert was drowned in the waves of the angry ocean. His last words will ever be kept in precious remembrance: We are as near heaven by sea as by land. The latter - Sir Walter Raleigh - the most accomplished man of his age, and a cavalier in the best sense of the word, renewed the undertaking, and in 1587 established a colony on Roanoke Island, in Pamlico Sound. Success seemed to go with the enterprise, and Queen Elizabeth gave the name Virginia to all North America. But a crisis in the history of England arose, and the kingdom, confronted with the Armada and the whole embattled power of Spain, had to fight for her very existence. In the mighty strife, the little group of men, women and children on Roanoke Island were forgotten, and when succor, after three years, at length arrived, the colony had disappeared.
