Excerpt from The Appearing and Kingdom of Our Lord Jesus Christ: In Four Letters to an Unbeliever The great doctrine or the second advent the subject of the following letters) has been upon the mind of the writer for about nine years. His attention was called-up to consider this very interesting question through the means of sermons received from the Old World, particularly some able discourses from the pen and pulpit of English-preachers, clergyman of the Church of England. Mcnelle, Bickersteth, Melvill, and some others, have written and preached with great force on this subject, while the Dissenters generally have been opposed to the doctrine, and have looked at it only, or chiefly, with a view to resist it, and put it down. At the time of the Writer's embracing these views, he was not aware that any in this New World had paid the least attention to the subject! And what is most astounding, the Christian public have discovered very little interest in the doctrine, however distinctly proclaimed, while the proclaimers have said little or nothing about the time. Really, the professors of Christ's holy religion seemed to be proof against all impression arising from the mere assertion of the truth itself; but as soon as his coming specially - His being AT the very noon, was declared, men began to be uneasy; and when 1843 was announced, the whole matter of the Advent began to be clearly apprehended. Then there were great searchings of heart and men began to be in trouble. O the depravity and deceitfulness of the human heart! While the Judgment of the Great Day is yet considered in the obscurity...
