And since you are going to make use of essential oils, you need not worry much because these oils come from natural sources which mean that they are safe to use. However, since you are dealing with babies here, it would still be important to keep in mind some tips, such as: -Do not use essential oils for babies younger than 3 months old. During this stage, babies are extremely sensitive and it would still be best to check with your doctor first before applying anything on them. Lavender and Chamomile are the first two oils that you can use for babies. Don t use eucalyptus oil unless babies are over 2 years of age as this may be too extreme for them. -Dilute the oils with water well before using so that the oils will not be too strong for the babies. The oil pulling process (even if it focuses on the human mouth) literally heals every working part of your body, eventually making you fit and healthy in the long run. Nutritionists and functional medicine specialists have seen positive results. Although the oil pulling concept has already started to gain steam in the Western World in recent years, dental professionals...
