Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At the age of 38, Susan Eik Filstead suffered a catastrophic stroke the morning after her son, Matthew, was born. Acute care, treatment and rehabilitation caused her to miss the first three-and-one half years of his life. Her husband, Bill, describes the impact this event has had on her, their son and himself through a personal diary he has kept over the 16 years since this stroke. It is a deeply moving and personal portrayal of their love, devotion to each other, and Susan s determination. The importance of HOPE is told in a raw, frank and humorous manner. As Bill points out, Either we either can cry or laugh at the mess we are in-we choose to laugh. Without laughter we would have been dead a while ago. Bill s story of Susan s relentless effort to regain her life, to re-learn basic skills and tasks we all take for granted and her unwavering desire to walk and be recognized as Matthew s Mom and Bill s wife, will inspire you. Susan lives with hope! Those who read this book will discover that anything is possible, and will be renewed with a sense of hope to move forward and confront the challenges in their lives.
