Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.When I opened my office in Archer Street, Piccadilly London business was very slow. I then started booking all the beat clubs and coffee bars in Soho. But the business only became a success when I focused my efforts on Colleges Universities. I then formed College Entertainments Ltd. I was managing director until 1972 when I married the love of my life. That is when I sold the company after enjoying twelve hectic years of rock music success. That period from 1960 until the early 70 s was an exciting explosive crazy roller coaster ride. It was a frantic time. The start of unadulterated Rock Music. I started out with nothing. I was broke and lived on Tulse Hill estate in Brixton. Homeless people have been known to refuse accommodation on that notorious estate. I go into detail about my rock music adventures later. But here are some tasty INTRO tit bits. Some rock h orderves to keep you going before I introduce the main menu. LED ZEPPELIN: Back in 1968 their manager, Peter Grant, phoned me and...
