

The Musical Theatre Writers Survival Guide

By David Spencer

Heinemann Drama. Paperback. Condition: New. 216 pages. Dimensions: 9.6in. x 6.4in. x 0.4in. David Spencer has written a book full of truths a young writer will not find articulated anywhere else. Most of us in the theatre gained our experience by making mistakes and learning from them. David's book lets you gain the experience and skip the mistakes part. Anyone maneuvering the treacherous waters of musicals will find it not nearly so lonely or baffling with this remarkable volume as a companion. - Richard Maltby, Jr., Director Lyricist, Miss Saigon, Aint Misbehavin, Baby Consider The Musical Theatre Writers Survival Guide your new best friend in the business. - Alan Menken, Oscar recipient and Tony-Award nominee, composer, Little Shop of Horrors and Beauty and the Beast At long last: a how-to book written by someone who actually knows how to. It hits so many nails on the head I could barely get through it for the sound of all that hammering. - Larry Gelbart, Award-winning co-librettist, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum and librettist, City of Angels For its practitioners, musical theatre is an art, a passion, and a lifelong love. But its also a complex landscape involving...
