The History Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Invisible Man tells the remarkable story of how Rod Temperton worked his way up from a Grimsby fish factory to become one of the most successful songwriters of all time. Born in Cleethorpes in 1949, Temperton embarked on a career in music with the funk band Heatwave, for whom he wrote the international hits `Boogie Nights and `Always and Forever , before his songwriting talent caught the attention of Michael Jackson s legendary producer, Quincy Jones. For Jackson s Off the Wall album, Temperton penned both the hit `Rock with You and the album s title track. Three years later, continuing his relationship with the pair, Temperton started work on what would become the bestselling album of all time - Michael Jackson s Thriller - writing three songs, including the now legendary title track. And yet despite collaborating with some of music s biggest stars, including Donna Summer and Michael McDonald, Temperton was famously reclusive and seldom gave interviews, one of the exceptions being for author Jed Pitman s Sony Award-winning radio documentary on Temperton allowed him unprecedented access to the great man.
