ENVIRONMENTAL POLITICS AND LIBERATION IN CONTEMPORARY AFRICA

Springer. Hardcover. Condition: New. 187 pages. Dimensions: 9.5in. x 6.2in. x 0.7in. This book is the first of its kind to explore the intricate relationship between liberation movements and environmental struggles in contemporary Africa. It is premised on the question why some movements are called environmental and others liberation. What socioeconomic and political circumstances lead to the making or dissipation of such distinctions? Common among African liberation movements is the promise to offer alternative political order and livelihood possibilities. The prominence...
