Excerpt from Building and Loan Associations: The Means for Co-Operative Savings by Southern Working People That country is always the most prosperous whose workpeople have the most and best home life. The most. And best home life condu ces tr; the highest wages, the best education and training and the greatest prosperity of a nation and of all its people. I have worked as a machinist, as a. Designer of machinery in the drafting-mom, as master machinist, and in conducting a business of constructing industrial works on my own account. In each of these occupations I have found the home or local building and loan association of invaluable service, and its exacting but fair require? Ments have been of inestimable advantage to me.
