Spurgeon of London, Vol. 15 Will you kindly notice from the connection of my text what state Solyma was in when these calls came to her? She was in her glory and beauty. In admiration the question is asked, Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners A church or an individual Christian in a low state of grace may escape Observation. Who cares about a dead church? Who fights with a lukewarm people? But if Jesus Christ be in the church, or in the heart, he will soon be seen. The evangelist tells us, he could not be hid. You may slip down the street in the night without a candle, and like a thief you may pass by unobserved, but if the Lord has lighted your candle, and you bear it with you, the watchmen will notice you, the dogs will bark at you, and others will spy you out....
