

The Still Small Voice Heeding the Call to Holiness

By Thomas McGuire

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 196 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. Written from a heart that has been transfixed on the pursuit of God, The Still Small Voice urges the reader to become consumed by the Holy Fire of God. This book encourages every reader to see that no matter what age, what lifestyle, or what place in their life that they are at, the creator of the universe and Lover of their soul is constantly gazing upon them and speaking through His creation and through His own voice. This book stirs the reader to look back at the timeless truths of the Bible and see how today in a society that races ahead with technology and speed, that without holiness, the efforts of our labor are without much eternal fanfare. Stop, says the voice of the Lord, and listen, know me for yourself. Are you frustrated with the ways of modern day ministry and the missing elements of the Lord's presence on the face of church? The Lord is longing to place His fingerprint upon all that we do in His name, His voice is speaking to every Christian man, woman, and child. I desire you, do you really...
