The pious purpose which has ruled the hearts of this vast multitude is fulfilled, and we stand on hallowed ground. Again we gather around that altar of freedom long since erected by our gallant forefathers in this temple made by God s own hands, and again we give to that altar the offerings of our filial devotion. I bid you welcome, my countrymen, thrice welcome to a scene so rich in its traditionary renown, and around which still lingers the glory of a feat of arms, which nobly heralded the greater glory of your country s freedom. I congratulate you on the advent of another anniversary of a day long canonized in the historic calendar, and which should ever be hailed with the proudest memories that can swell the heart of the patriot. I rejoice, men of North Carolina, to meet you here to-day, for my mission is to speak of the virtue,...
