Newman: A Full and Authentic Report of the Above Prosecution for Libel, Tried Before Lord Campbell and a Special Jury, in the Court of Queens Bench, Westminster, June, 1852; With Introductory RemarksThe melancholy exhibition which has just been witnessed in the Court of Queens Bench (detailed in the following Report), is a fit subject for humiliating reflection to those who have been indulging the hope that human nature was gradually, though slowly, progressing towards that state of perfection, of which so many are wont to speculate, but of which it is feared the consummation is still distant. In this remarkable trial it is self-evident that the most determined and wholesale perjury has been practised. It is not that any particular witness on one side has been guilty of it, but that the whole of the witnesses on one side or the other must be guilty of perjury the most flagrant and systematic. Even where there is no temptation to perjury, it is difficult to find half a dozen witnesses agreeing in their evidence; how numerous, therefore, must the rehearsals have been preparatory to this...
