Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 73: October 12, 1911 Is there a man possessing reasoning powers who can believe that any one of these quibbles would ever have been thought of had it not been necessary to devise some means to save some theory from being destroyed by the obvious meaning of the Savior s language? While the kingdom was yet in prospect, Jesus taught the people by parables and figures; but after its establishment, figures gave place to facts, commands and promises. Jesus commands His apostles to preach the gospel to every creature, promising salva tion to those who would believe and obey it. He also promised them the Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth and enable them to unerringly perform the work he had assigned them. When it came, they began to preach as it inspired them; people were cut to the heart and made to cry out, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Peter did not tell them to be born again, because the time for figures had passed; he, therefore, said to them,...
