RETHINKING ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE

DOWNLOAD

SIRD, Petaling Jaya, Malaysia, 2010. Soft cover. Condition: New. 1st Edition. Just how 'Islamic' are the domes, minarets and other features that enable us to identify mosques and other buildings as being associated with Islam? The author, an architect well versed in the Sunnah, the practice of the Prophet Muhammed, raises some questions as he examines such buildings in Indonesia and Malaysia today. Since Islam traditionally espouses humility and humanism, might the work of visionary Western modernists be more in tune with the Sunnah than some of the 'Islamic' structures that exist in both these countries today? This thought provoking book, although written with careful reference to the Sunnah, is sufficiently readable for anyone interested in how art forms evolve and what they represent. 191 pages with the following chapters - 1 - The Islamic Architecture of Malaysia and Indonesia, 2 - Islamic Architecture in Malaysia: A Middle Eastern Inferiority Complex?, 3 - The Mosque in Architectural Historiography, 4 - The Limitations of Western Scholarship on Islamic Architecture, 5 - Mosque Architecture in Malaysia: Styles and Influences, 6 - The An-Nur Mosque: Back to A Humanistic Agenda, 7 - Political Islam in Malaysia and its Influence on Mosque Architecture, 8 - Designing the Mosque as a Community Development Centre, 9 - Death, Funerary Rituals and Cemeteries in Islamic Cities, 10 - Wright's Organic Structure and the Sunnah, 11 - A New Approach to the Study of Islamic Architecture. There are over 30 black and white illustrations, a Glossary, Notes, a Bibliography and an Index. Weight: 0.4kg. Post free within Malaysia.
