Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Gentle Reader; Q: How many admirers of Blessed Seraphim Rose does it take to perform a fair, impartial, honest, and accurate scientific study of the age of the universe? A: No one knows. (It s never been tried!) In retrospect, and after years and a very slight new revision, this is a book about possible half-converted status among Fr. Seraphim (Rose) of Plantina, a possible half-converted status that may bleed into his following. The author once put a hand on a dear friend s shoulder and said, It s been a while since I spent some quality time criticizing you. What s your favorite way of being criticized? And indeed, most people don t like to be critiqued. Numerous fans of Fr. Seraphim have given one-star reviews to this title, which especially given their social dynamic is to be expected if this book is wrong, and almost equally to be expected if it is right. As regards the reviews, this is the only work written by author where a reviewer has publicly cast doubt on whether he was sober when he wrote it. (The reader is invited to search for other titles by C.J.S. Hayward most have higher ratings, and even the ones with lower ratings do not have such insults in reviews.) Come to think of it, the author s knowledge of Amazon reviews overall is limited, but he does not recall this kind of hostile response to any other work by any other author in any review he is read.) The Full of logical fallacies--be warned! review is somewhat difficult to answer as the alleged fallacies are identified briefly at best, but receptive readers might consider: First, the author...
