Trafford Publishing. Hardcover. Condition: New. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Order in the House is the remedy for strong healthy marriages. God has heard his peoples cry concerning the brokenness in marriage and has birthed the solution into the earth. Order in the House is an easy read Spiritual self-help book. It deals with the purpose and intention of the marriage covenant. Difficult questions such as, why your spouse, with all of his or her faults, is perfect for you are answered. God removes all the guess work by making it very practical and clear in understanding your roles as husband and wife. He walks you step-by-step through the process of how to fulfill those roles and how to connect with each other for purpose. Additionally, He exposes and reveals the doors that the enemy enters through by using the authors vulnerability and weaknesses. Areas where the enemy once had a stronghold, causing her marriage to suffer and nearly end in divorce, are revealed in great detail. Now readers can use this valuable information to locate themselves so that God can lead them to a place of dominating their domain of marriage. Order in the House deals with communication. Why and how men and women communicate differently. It explains the importance of meeting the needs of your spouse and not focusing on your own needs. At the same time, how to get your needs met (by God). It teaches how to take on a new mind-set and fight Gods way, not the worlds way, which sets your marriage on a course of divorce. It dispels the lies of the enemy, using the word of God, that would cause individuals to believe that same sex marriages are o. k. . Most importantly, it reveals how one individual can change...
